

“Title IX and Intercollegiate Athletics How It All Works – In Plain English”

A Self-Evaluation Manual and Desk Reference for Colleges and Universities

“Title IX and Interscholastic Athletics How It All Works – In Plain English”

A Self-Evaluation Manual and Desk Reference for High Schools and Middle Schools

What Your Colleagues Are Saying About The Manuals:

“Your manual and desk reference . . . is a truly outstanding work. I am amazed at how thorough and detailed your analysis and instructions are. This book is invaluable for a university attorney, athletics director, compliance officer and anyone else working within the field of intercollegiate athletics . . . My congratulations to you on having produced . . . this incredible work.”

Mary Ann Connell, Past President
National Association of College and University Attorneys

“It is an invaluable resource from the foremost expert on Title IX in the country. It’s great, very user-friendly.”

Sarah Reesman, Executive Associate Athletics Director
University of Missouri

“I have had a chance to look through your book and it is great. It is a real recipe for a university who has a commitment to comply with Title IX but needs a road map!”

Ted Leland, Vice President, University of the Pacific
Former Director of Athletics, Stanford University

“It’s brilliant.”

Debbie Corum, Senior Associate Athletic Director, University of Connecticut
Former Associate Commissioner, Southeastern Conference

The book is a masterpiece!

Jeaney Garcia, Director of Athletics, Punahou School

The “Title IX manual and the accompanying assessment material are wonderfully organized and just plain smartly done, cover-to-cover.”

Michael J. Kiley, Associate General Counsel
Michigan State University

What Your Colleagues Are Saying About The Manuals:

“What an incredible job! Putting this into Plain English you have done and done well!”

Kathryn E. Lindahl, Former Assistant Vice President for Finance and Operations
Michigan State University

“An amazing job! It reads very well. It’s extremely helpful. It’s very methodical, the way it’s laid out – a tremendous amount of detail.”

Dan Yourg, Associate Athletics Director
University of San Diego

“We love the book! We just love it! It’s really helpful. Absolutely wonderful.”

Desiree Reed-Francois, Senior Associate Athletics Director, University of Cincinnati

The Manual is “very well written and easy to follow.”

Jana Estergard, Equal Opportunity Officer, Missouri State University