

Title IX Athletics Q & A

2015-16 Articles

September 2015

Cost of Attendance – how it works under Title IX

The EADA Report – how it differs from Title IX

December 2015

The O’Bannon Case – Round Two – the Circuit Court rules

Violation Versus Disparity – yes, they have different meanings

Prime Time Games – make it equitable

Red-Flags – identifying problems quickly

March 2016

Scholarships – fifth year and summer term aid

Scholarships – yes, there is more

Special Travel – suggested approaches

Facilities – questions about the details

Red-Flags – identifying problems quickly – facilities

Club and Intramural Sports – do they affect intercollegiate sports?

June 2016

The Three-Part Test – the political history is cringe-worthy

The 1990s – the court cases take center stage

2002 – The 30th Anniversary Assault – did they not care about the truth?

2005 – the last gasp policy of the men’s advocacy groups

2016 – a former Speaker sentenced

Title IX Athletics Q & A

2014-15 Articles

September 2014

The O'Bannon Decision and Title IX – this case could just keep on giving . . . .

Fundraising for a Foreign Tour – when men can raise the money and women cannot

The Cheerleading Squad – it can be for women only, but . . . .

Renovations Without Authorization – good grief, what will coaches think of next

Softball and Baseball Umpires – we suggest the number be the same

December 2014

Progress Under Title IX – are we now giving women too much?

Camps – what to do with the proceeds

Coaches' Qualifications – why this is often not a problem

Reasonable Professional Decisions – what they are . . . and are not

Normal Recruitment Area, Normal Competitive Region – why they matter so very much

March 2015

Sexual Assault – officials' obligations under Title IX

Title IX Coordinator for Athletics – is this required?

A Woman Trying Out for Football – what Title IX says

Women-Only Night at the Rec Center – can this be okay?

Test One – Is It the Only End Point? – probably not

June 2015

Surveys – never the sole gauge for compliance

Religious Exemptions – an old issue resurfaces

Major Versus Minor Sports – proportionate benefits are the key

Athletic Trainers – same sport, same assignments

Title IX Athletics Q & A

2013-14 Articles

September 2013

- The Three-Part Test – addressing the basics
- Softball/Baseball Fields – revisiting a continuing problem
- Practice Squads – to count or not to count
- EADA Expenditure Reports – never useful for determining compliance
- Opportunities and Funding – a parent's questions

December 2013

- Paying Athletes – what Title IX says
- Counting Participants – quitting the team, yet still getting aid
- Fundraising for Assistant Coaches – be extremely careful
- Intramurals – where they fit in the athletics mix
- Enrollment – what to do with non-traditional students

March 2014

- The Quinnipiac University Decision – some aspects of the court's ruling were puzzling
- Does Title IX Protect Men? – yes, of course it does
- Cutting a Men's Team – caution recommended
- Double-Header Games – what to consider
- Reporting Data for High Schools – it can be a good idea, with caveats

June 2014

- Cutting Teams – staying on the sunny side of Title IX
- Scholarships – yes, it is confusing
- Roster Management – please avoid numbers manipulation
- Courtesy Cars – suggestions for getting it right