

TITLE IX AND INTERSCHOLASTIC ATHLETICS: HOW IT ALL WORKS – IN PLAIN ENGLISH

PART FOUR — SELF EVALUATION WORKBOOK FOR HIGH SCHOOLS AND MIDDLE SCHOOLS. This file is the full text of the Workbook, which constitutes PART FOUR of the self-evaluation manual and desk reference entitled “Title IX and Interscholastic Athletics: How It All Works – In Plain English.” The Workbook includes: instructions; the information request; questionnaires for coaches, student-athletes, and staff; facilities charts; and instructions and charts for recording and analyzing athletics program information. This PDF file is in book format for double-sided printing.

WORKBOOK — WORD FILES. This file includes the information request, questionnaires, facilities charts, and charts for recording information. This Word file allows for downloading and transmitting the questionnaires via email. Coaches, staff, and student-athletes may complete their questionnaires in Word and return them via email to evaluators. Charts may be duplicated and completed in Word (by the purchaser for review of the purchaser’s educational institution of employment or where the purchaser is enrolled as a student). The instructions for completing the charts, which are in the PDF file of the full text of the Workbook, are not included in the Word files. This Word file is formatted for one-sided printing with spacing to expand the charts as necessary.

Parts One, Two, and Three of the Manual entitled “Title IX and Interscholastic Athletics: How It All Works – In Plain English,” which explain the analyses for the information collected per the Workbook instructions in Part Four, is available for purchase under “Title IX Books” at www.TitleXSpecialists.com.
